

NZ History Federation Inc

Health & Safety Seminars 2017

(Waikato / Bay of Plenty Regions)

The New Zealand History Federation is presenting a seminar on the Health and Safety Requirements for historical societies, museums and other heritage organisations in the Waikato and Bay of Plenty Regions. This will be held in Hockin House from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday 1 July 2017.

Hockin House is located at the end of Selwyn Street, which is next to Waikato Hospital in Hamilton and there is a car park on the premises. There is a charge of $10 per person for individuals or where there are less than two people attending per historical society, museum or heritage organisation or $20 per organisation for groups with two or more representatives.

The programme is as follows:

- (a) Neil Curgenvan, Liaison Officer for the Federation, will present the seminar on Health and Safety.
- (b) Members of the Waikato Historical Society will take participants on a tour through Hockin House.
- (c) Afternoon tea will be served at the conclusion of the event.

Please complete the following registration form and send it with the appropriate payments to

Neil Curgenvan, 5 Elmira Avenue, Hamilton, 3210 by Thursday 29 June 2017.

Name/s and contact details of individual participants or representatives of organisations where there are less than two participants @ $10 per person.

---

---

Please include the name of the: historical society, museum or heritage organisation where appropriate.

Name/s of representatives and contact details of organisations where there are two or more participants @ $20 per group.

---

---

---

---

---

Please include the name of the: historical society, museum or heritage organisation.